February 2018

Dear friends,

Happy New Year!

What better way to start the year than by ordering PWRDF promotional and educational resources to use in your parishes, at speaking engagements, anywhere that people gather to hear the good news story that is PWRDF.

Enclosed you will find the 2018 PWRDF resources order form. Resources will begin shipping to those who have ordered in early April 2018.

The 2018 resources will focus on the impact of our programs on women, their families and their communities joining food security and micro-finance as integral parts of the work of PWRDF and partners. We will have some returning favourites and new promotional pieces. The schedule for resource ordering for 2018 is as follows:

-  February: PWRDF resources letter and order form will be mailed to the parishes
-  March: Resources will be posted to the PWRDF website
-  April: Hume Media Inc. will begin shipping PWRDF resources

I encourage all diocesan representatives to send this message about PWRDF's 2018 resources to all of your parish representatives, clergy and others in your networks to spread the word about the good work of PWRDF. The 2018 order form will also be available in March on the PWRDF website: <http://pwrdf.org/resources/promotional/>

Please let me know if you have any questions and we look forward to receiving your orders.

Warm regards,

Christine
