

Reverend Gregory W. Smith

Graduating from Huron University College at Western, Greg was ordained deacon in the Anglican Church of Canada in 1978, and priest in 1979. Since then Greg has served four parishes in the Diocese of Huron. He has served on a variety of national and diocesan committees. In 1989 Greg spent a year teaching French and Grade 8 in the public school system. Since 2013, he has been the Director of Field Education for the Faculty of Theology at Huron University College. He was an invited member of the PWRDF Latin American and Caribbean Roundtable (2009), and participated in partner visits to El Salvador (2014) and Cuba (2015). Greg sits on the Board of NAAC (North American Association for the Catechumenate) and his other interests include: centering prayer, sacred dance, gardening and singing. He has three adult children, five grandchildren and enjoys life with his partner, Marque Smith. Greg has been a PWRDF Diocesan Representative since 2003.
