

Sheila Boutcher

Diocese of Central Newfoundland

Sheila Boutcher retired a few years ago following a career in Community Economic Development and Business Development. She graduated from Memorial University of Newfoundland with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Sociology and Economics and went on to earn a Certificate in Small Business Counselling from the Canadian Institute of Small Business Counsellors Inc. She is an active member of St. Martin's Cathedral in Gander, NL. She has taught Sunday School for 20 years, assists with Confirmation Classes, is a Eucharistic Assistant, reads the Prayers of the People during worship services, participates in Biblical Studies and is Secretary for Cursillo for the Diocese of Central Newfoundland. She has also served on Vestry and been a Church Warden. Sheila has been the PWRDF Diocesan Representative for Central Newfoundland since 2010.