

Asha Kerr-Wilson – Board Liaison

Diocese of Ottawa and Ecclesiastical Province of Ontario

Asha Kerr-Wilson lives in Ottawa, Ontario and currently is the Board Liaison, representing the Youth Council as a PWRDF Board Member. She recently graduated from the University of Regina with a BA in Environmental Studies, minoring in Justice Studies. Asha started on Youth Council as a representative of the Ecclesiastical Province of Rupert's Land and made the switch to representing BC/Yukon after moving to Vancouver in the hopes of finding a job in non-profit environmental conservation or environmental justice. Asha has found working with Youth Council both challenging and enriching as she has grown in her faith and in her passion to help others; she is looking forward to expanding her work with PWRDF in her new role as Board Liaison.
