

Mike MacKenzie

Mike MacKenzie lives in Sherbrooke, Nova Scotia and is the Youth Council Member-at-Large representative. Originally from Cape Breton, Mike completed a Bachelor of Public Relations at Mount Saint Vincent University in Halifax and currently works in marketing and communications for a post-secondary education institution. Mike has been involved with various ministries in former and current parishes, including terms on parish council and communications committees, and numerous outreach projects. He's also an active participant in the Education for Ministry (EFM) lay formation program. Mike is looking forward to working with Youth Council to explore how we can encourage others to live out the gospel and bring positive change to the world.
